Many charitable and philanthropic institutions, as well as rich men were caught in the failure. Most of the charities of Salem, Mass., are losers along with the Rockefeller Foundation and even a woman member of John D. Rockefeller's family.

The reorganization plan, as promulgated, provided for he merchandise creditors and the banks holding $3: 000,000 of notes issued by John Claffin to get something on account but no mention whatever is made of the hundreds of investing stockhold-

The new plan provides for the organization of a company called the Claffin Corporation, with an issue of capital stock that is to be deposited as security for future payment of the millions of notes in bankers' possession. All the old stock dimply disappears from sight. Questioned as to this, one of the bankers prominent in the company's affairs said

"What can be expected for the stock when there is not enough to pay off even the creditors?" The H. B. Claffin Company had

Marquard Breaks His Losing Supreme Struggles on To-Day In Both France and East Prussia-Germans Force the Meuse, but Are Unable to Break Through the Determined Human Barrier.

ALLIES REPORT GAINS AGAINST GERMAN RIGHT

LONDON, Sept. 28.-Two of the greatest battles of the present war are nearing a decisive stage. In France, along the Allied-German lines, the supreme clash of arms denoting the approaching close of the tremendous fortnight of practically unceasing battle along the four rivers flowing through the northeastern portion of France has now been in progress for forty-eight hours, without decisive result as

Along the East Prussian frontier the invading Russians have come to grips with an immense German army, strongly intrenched and heavily reinforced, and this battle, perhaps equal in magnitude to the battle in France, is expected to continue for several days.

Both sides in France claim encouraging though slight gains. Field Marshal Sir John French is spending his sixtysecond birthday in maintaining what his latest communication to the War Offices describes as a "satisfactory situation."

The Germans have steadily met assault with counterassault until the trenches of the opposing armies are only sprinting distance apart.

Already there has been some work with the steel in handto-hand conflicts, but except at a single point, where they forced a passage across the Meuse, the Germans, half of whose army is kept busy on the Russian frontier, had up to last night found it impossible to break through the human barrier stretching across France.

The battle line in East Prussia extends from far to the north of Eydkuhnnen through Goldapp to Lyck. The Germans are declared to be strongly entrenched and to have been very heavily reinforced.

The Russian army is being heavily reinforced from the nain reserve army with headquarters at Warsaw. The weather is very bad, with alternate sleet and rain, making speedy movements of troops almost impossible.

A Central News despatch from Rome says that the following telegram has been received from Petrograd:

"The right wing of the Austrians has been driven back beyond the Carpathians into Hungary where they are being pursued by the Russians. The Austrian debacle is com-

"The Austrian defeat is reported to be complete and they have lost all their artillery. The Austrian left wing has retreated to Cracow. The Russians have occupied another of the forts of Przemysl."

An official despatch from Petrograd says that Przemysl. in Galicia, is now entirely invested by the Russians, and that the main Austrian army is retiring behind the Carpathians.
